COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING

One of the Most Enthusiastic Yet Held.

School Interests Among Matters Discussed.

The call of a Citizens meeting by the Commercial Club was responded to by nearly every business man and citizen of the city at the court house Thursday night. Col. T. W. Heman was made chairman and delivered a ringing address on the necessity of our people getting together and working in unison for the upbuilding of our city and county and enthusiastic addresses were also delivered by attorney C. C. Davidson, I. C. Barnes, A. D. Goldenberg, M. Rudolph, Prof. Ware and others. B. C. Hancock, an experienced dry-farmer, who understands the Campbell system also delivered an interesting address on that subject, which was well received. Our school interests were discussed generally and the sentiment was unanimous that additional facilities must be had in Tucumcari and Prof. Ware informed the meeting that at least 100 children were now out of school in this district for the reason that they cannot be accommodated with the room the present building affords. A reorganization of the old commercial club is now in process and directors for the new organization are as follows:

C. T. Chenault, I. C. Barnes, A. D. Goldenberg, A. B. Dauber, Earl George, T. W. Heman, and one other that we did not get. The directors are to draft a constitution and by-laws for the management and control of the organization and will present them at a meeting to be held at the Court House at 7 p. m. on February 7.

A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend a social hop at my new store next Wednesday night, Jan. 30th. Respectfully,

Handy with Checks

One E. E. McCauly, a hobo printer, who blew into this office Monday one week ago and who was employed by our office foreman worked until Saturday night at 6 o'clock when he was paid off and began a glorious old booze which lasted until Monday morning. During his play at the whiskey glasses he tried the various gambling games and when his week's salary was exhausted he began drawing checks on the Tucumcari First National and forging the name of the Tucumcari Printing Co. by the Editor of this paper as its business manager and cashed half a dozen or more checks in this manner. He played the boys a lively game until he would go broke then he would proceed to make some more checks. The forgery was not discovered until he was out of town Monday so he made his temporary getaway, but if he stays on earth he will never get away as our officers and those who have been bilked by him are not going to quit. He got two other printers who are employed in this office into trouble by cashing checks on them also. One of them is in jail now for check work that in the opinion of this paper was the villainy of McCauly. McCauly hails from Looker, Okla., and we are informed has a wife there.

Morgan-Mack Wedding

W. H. Morgan, our well known fellowtownsman, and Miss Annie Mack of Texarkana, bookkeeper for the Western Union Telegraph Co., who has spent the past several months in Tucumcari with Mrs. J. A. Street, were married at the Street residence at half past 8 o'clock Thursday morning, the Rev. Milton Reece officiating. Only a few close friends were invited to be present and the happy couple left immediately on the morning train for Brady Texas, where Mr. Morgan is engaged in the mercantile business and where they will remain until spring when Mr. Morgan will return to Tucumcari to spend the summer. This paper joins the friends of the matrimonial contractors in wishing them all the happiness attendant upon a wedded life.
